ITALY IN GRAVE PERIL ENGLAND TOLD THE TRUTH

Russ Army Starving—Big U-Boat Catch—
Americans Killed—Railroads Will Stay
Hitched—Other Wires

VENICE IS GERMAN OBJECTIVE POINT

ROME, Nov. 19.—Venice's fate still hung in the balance today, according to front dispatches. The enemy has hit a stone wall in the Piave line. But they have passed this wall back a few precious yards to the point of grave danger. Today the Italians centered their efforts to relieve these points applied to the and were reported to have strengthened them.

RUSSIA'S ARMY STARVING AT FRONT

PETROGRAD, Nov. 19.—Russia's army at the front will soon be defeated by famine and will abandon its positions, unless there is immediate improvement in transport and supply, according to the warning voiced by delegates of the committee.

Prolongation of the war under present conditions they are reported to have told the soviet, is utterly impossible. The army is now only supplied with rations enough for three days, it was asserted. This grave warning and belief that starvation among the soldiery would result in horrors worse even than those of the civil war now raging, caused the gravest apprehension here today. The Bolshevik government had been unable to agree as yet.

VILLA KNOCKS OUT MANY MEXICANS

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—A force of government troops attempting to set a trap for Villa forces advancing on Chihuahua City Sunday were almost annihilated when they encountered the bandits near La Mula Pass, according to reports reaching here today.

RETURNS BEGIN TO COME IN NOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Two American soldiers were killed and six wounded in an engagement last Tuesday night. General Pershing reported today.

THE PRESIDENT WILL HANDLE RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Formal announcement was made today that the railroads of the United States had decided that if any crisis should arise to place their interests in the hands of President Wilson for protection and such disposition as he may deem necessary to prevent interruption of transportation during the war.

The four railroad brotherhoods who have made demands for increases ed wages have agreed to mediation of the dispute, but have refused an unconditional submission of the question to a board of arbitration.

Today's announcement by the railroad war board is regarded by officials as eliminating the possibility of a strike by giving the President a free hand so far as the railroads are concerned when he meets the brotherhood leaders in conference here next Thursday.

MIDDLE BLOUSES ARE NOW FORBIDDEN

BERKELEY, Nov. 19.—Off with your middies, girls of the University of California! That is the word received this morning on the campus from the war department.

And not only are the girls of the University of California affected, but all others throughout the nation, with the exception of those girls who are doing work for the military or navy service of the nation. Girls wearing naval insignia and middle blouses unconnected with the service make it possible that those girls in official position who are permitted to wear the middle with insignia, will not be recognizable from others as being in the service. Hence the order which goes into effect immediately.

CLAMPS ARE PUT ON ALL ALIEN ENEMIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—All alien enemies are required to register and to obtain permits for travel, under a proclamation issued today by President Wilson.

The proclamation, issued is a supplement to the one declaring a state of war with Germany, provides further that an alien enemy shall not, except on public ferries, be found on "any ocean, bay, river or other waters," within the United States. They are forbidden to fly in airplanes, balloons or airships and to enter the Panama Canal Zone.

GERMANS LOSE MORE WARSHIPS

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 19.—One and possibly two German destroyers were lost with most of the members of their crews in the fight with British naval forces off Heligoland Sunday, travelers from Germany said today.

LONDON, Nov. 19. Five German submarines were destroyed on Saturday alone. Premier Lloyd George told the house of commons this afternoon.

Our local Red Cross society is still hard at work and accomplishing wonders for a city the size of Richmond.

FULL ITALIAN FRONT IS NOW IN DANGER

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The northern front, where the Piave and Brenta rivers join, the Austro-Germans are hurling forward in such strength that the entire Italian line is threatened. Hope is expressed here that the Anglo-French forces will be ready at once to launch into the breach that threatens to widen on this front.

While the Italians are holding the middle and lower reaches of the Piave river successfully against the Teutonic invaders and have thrown back the greater portion of those who crossed the stream, the enemy is trying with strong forces to the north to beat back the troops of General Diaz, pierce the line and force a retirement westward from the region of Vidor to the Adriatic Sea.

LITTLE BELGIUM IS SOME SCRAPPER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A German retirement of the Dixmude front was officially reported to Belgian legation today.

"The enemy is abandoning fortified farms on the Yser left bank, blowing up elaborate and intricate concrete redoubts," said an official statement. "Belgian detachments occupied the positions, caused severe losses to the enemy and captured scores of prisoners."

Richmond Club Entertains Many

The ladies of the Richmond club were the hosts of a large attendance of Richmond women yesterday. Two Berkeley speakers of note addressed the assembly. Mrs. E. D. Saylor spoke of the work which is being carried on by the Young Women's Christian Association, during the war times. Mrs. Ross, another capable speaker addressed the gathering on Food Conservation. Both spoke of the duties and help of women during war times.

Richmond grocers, Pulse Brothers, St. Vraters and Beckhaus had excellent displays of raw foods, flours and cereals. Several cooked foods were on display, chiefly an eggless cake, and biscuits made of rice flour.

An excellent entertainment was furnished by Miss Vera Wyatt, who played the piano, accompanied by Miss Wyatt, Miss Knoble, a fine singer, sang several songs.

Miss Reed also entertained with some very beautiful Egyptian dances. The Club has donated $10 to the Y. M. C. A. fund.

The hostesses were: Mrs. E. B. Anderson, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. C. McCullough, Mrs. C. B. Evans, and Mrs. J. B. March.

There was a constant stream of ladies coming and going all afternoon, and they all voted the reception to be both entertaining and instructive. Richmond's fair womanhood is sure trying to "do its bit" to help Uncle Sam. They work earnestly and accomplish results in many different ways.

THE ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors held the regular meeting last night. On November 26, the lodge has secured Mrs. Barry, a noted speaker on the present day affairs, to give a speech on the Conservation of Food. Refreshments and a program will also be had on this night. The refreshments committee is composed of Mrs. Foster, chairman; Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Sarah Douglas.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS AND GOSSIP

Things One Sees and Hears Around the Court House

It has been a long while since "the old man" of this paper has been up at Martinez to visit friends and acquaintances at the court house and elsewhere, as the awful never-ending grind of a daily morning paper, which never loosens its grip on a fellow day or night, prevents all such sociability as visiting. But we ran away, anyhow, yesterday, and put in a few hours among those who serve the county in their several capacities, and rubbed around the county seat town among the other newspaper slaves, lawyers and other bad actors.

Editor Rugg was enjoying the pleasures of a breakdown in his press, and was using that of his hated rival, something we all have to do once in a while. He was down under the broken press, swearing softly to himself and had no time to visit. Editor Sharkey was on the sick list, having had his tonsils cut out, and was staying home. We left word with the news man, his assistant, to tell him that in our humble opinion the doctors had made a grave mistake (he slams at the doctors intended by that word grave) in cutting out the wrong organ—it should have been his gall.

The board of supervisors was in session and looked as large as life, and twice as natural. They had finished Arnold a box of good cigars, and we arrived just in time to get one. His crime was occupying one of the members chairs. Supervisor Zeb Knott, of this district, was pleading with tears in his eyes for a dollar and six-bits with which to build some roads in the Richmond section of the county, but the rest of the Board, except Judge Casey, voted to trim that down to 50 cents. We did not say anything to them about the advisability of publishing the Supervisors' proceedings in papers down this way, so Richmond taxpayers could even learn what was done with their money, as they seemed a little peeved about something or other, and we did not like to stroke their fur the wrong way.

The Board decided not to appeal the Cowell Cement Co. case from Judge Latimer's decision, at which there was much howl from the farmers around the Cowell section. In this the Board did just right. The dust from the cement works is more or less of a nuisance to neighboring ranchmen is conceded, but it is a private nuisance and not a public one, and is clearly a matter between the cement company and the neighboring dwellers, and not a matter in which the whole county is interested or should be called upon to litigate and go to expense about. The finding of the Supervisor Court was to this effect, also.

Al Sullinger had been out quail hunting, and had bagged two, walking ten miles to do so, or five miles to the quail. This is rather strenuous feeding, but the exercise is good, and Al needs it to keep him in good fighting trim for the coming campaign, as somebody who don't know any better might bob up and want to butt in.

Sheriff Veale still wears that child-

THE BRITISH REJOICE OVER U-BOAT NEWS

LONDON, Nov. 19.—By the shrewdest political coup of his career, Premier Lloyd George today sent a thrill of jubilation through a partly hostile parliament before which he was on trial for his "brutally frank" Paris speech.

In the midst of an eloquent defense of the interally war council he suddenly switched to the submarine question and announced triumphantly:

"Five U-boats were destroyed last Saturday alone. There is no longer any ground for fear of the submarine peril."

Tumultuous cheering swallowed the second sentence. The House of Commons resounded for several minutes with an ovation such as has not been heard there since the fall of Bagdad. It was the gladdest news Britain has heard about the U-boat campaign since the birth of that menace.

Like and bland cable-slit smile of his, that never wears off, and is always glad to see his friends. Inclined he wants to know who his friends are, pretty soon, and who are not. This much can be depended upon—anybody that beats the Little General for the office of sheriff this trip is sure going to know that he had a fight on and worthy of his steel. Veale is the hardest man to beat in this county, or any other county. It might be done, if a real good man, popular with all the people, capable, experienced, brainy and a hard worker, and with a boxcar load of money he was willing to blow in—but he would need about that much, at least, and maybe then some.

District Attorney Tom Johnston was pretty busy, too, with legal matters up before the Hon. Board. He was good natured, though, because he had just secured the conviction of a lady of easy, (or uneasy) virtue at Concord. She got her choice between fifty dollars and fifty days, which ought to hold her for a while. Fire Chief Lemoine was up before the Board, not for misdemeanor this time, as it happened, but because he wanted some small change to fix up a chemical fire auto for the San Pablo district—he got $400, which was better than thirty days.

Judge Hannum was courting up there yesterday, and hobnobbing with Tinning, Rodgers, Bray, Witte and other limbs of the law. So likewise was Judge Jacobs.

Martin Jeost was on the job and took some tax money he handed in as though it was all right and a matter of course. They are a hard-hearted bunch up in that court house and a fellow is lucky if he gets out of there with enough to get home on.

George Meese was out of town, Mike Hurley surrounded with other people and Clerk Wells too busy to bat an eye. Will Veale offered to take us over and feed us with the rest of the prisoners in the county jail, but you bet he didn't work no such stunt as that on us. We're too old a bird. If he ever got us in that cage it would cost us a box of the best cigars in town to get out, and we'd be lucky at that.

About the only excitement that occurred was when Mr. Majors of the First National Bank, with his little daughter, went off a 60-foot embankment in their automobile. It was as close a shave for human life as we ever witnessed. Majors jumped and did not get hurt, but the little girl stayed by the machine, which went over a stone or plank or something, as good luck would have it, and so shot straight out and right side up over the cliff, coming down square on its tires, running a few feet and then stopping. The girl was not injured, but badly frightened.

Martinez is improving right along.

CONCIL TRANSACTS IMPORTANT BUSINESS

City Fathers Pay Bills, Help Y. M. C. A. and Collect Much License Money

That the felt factory and other new departments of the Certain-teed Products company will be operating by next June and that then 400 men will be employed was the statement made by Manager Starub of the local plant of the Certain-teed company at the council meeting last evening when plans for a sewer from the plant in the northern section of the city were discussed at length. The company wants a 12-inch sewer and had agreed to pay the extra cost amounting to over $3,000 to get the sewer connections of the size it desires over the size normally laid in residential sections of the city.

Three small rights of way are yet to be secured and the council ordered plans to be advanced at once so that construction work on the sewer can be started as soon as the spring rains are over.

Ordinance Goes Over

With the San Francisco-Oakland terminal railway company pleading for further delay, the hearing on the electrolysis ordinance went over for two weeks with the announcement that no further delays be granted. The railway representatives said that John S. Drum representing its corporation and Colonel Rheem of the Standard Oil Company are to have a conference in a final effort to reach an agreement all present suggestions for amendments made by the car company are worthless. The Standard Oil claims that due to poorly bonded tracks that escaping electricity does thousands of dollars worth of damage to the tanks and pipe lines of the oil company at its big refinery here.

Autos Get Attention

Under the direction of the police department tests will soon be held to see that all local autos conform with the new state motor law relative to headlights. It is planned to have a testing station established where all headlights will be examined to ascertain if their rays are not more than 42 inches above the ground at a distance of 75 feet in front of the auto. The plans suggested will be along the line followed in Oakland. The City Council discusses the matter at length last night and plans for the tests will be put under way at once. Mayor Lane again brought up the matter of a speed cap but no definite action was taken.

Delay Wage Increase

Further consideration until next Monday evening was decided upon on the petition of steer department employees for an increase from $3 to $3.50 per day. City Engineer Chapman is agreeable to the increase, but the finance committee is of the opinion that there should be a graded scale of wages and this will likely be adopted.

To Pave Crossing

It was reported that the Southern Pacific Railway Company is ready to place a dry macadam walk across its tracks at Barrett avenue. It is the plan to allow this walk for the winter but to order a concrete walk to the rails in the spring.

To Open Bids

Bids will be opened December 3d for the paving of Beck street and Santa Fe avenue. These are both small jobs.

Saloons Pay Big Licenses. Tax Collector Marshall's report for October shows that the sum of $8,730 was collected in liquor licenses for the quarter; that business licenses amounted to $594 and that taxes collected were $16,628.81.

To Reconsider Phone Agreement

As the new franchise of the telephone company provides for a letter agreement for carrying the wires of the police and fire alarm systems, the old agreement with the company is to be reconsidered.

Give $100 for Y. M. C. A.

Upon motion of Councilman Watson the sum of $100 was donated to the Y. M. C. A. army entertainment fund.

Protested Wood Charge

W. J. Lane's protest against being assessed for alleged wood cleaning in front of Cutting Boulevard property was referred to the finance committee.

Delay Are Light

An are light for Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue went over for a week's consideration. Councilman Gerlach strongly recommended the request.

To Condemn Crossing Land

The Railroad Commission having granted a grade crossing over the Southern Pacific tracks at Roosevelt avenue, the city will now get busy to condemn land needed for the new street.

Attorney Employed

The finance committee was empowered to sign a contract with Attorney M. Green, of Berkeley, to pay him $350 to represent this city in the fight to be made by a number of cities in the state before the railroad commission against the plan of the Pacific Gas and Electric company for an increase in gas rates. The committee will investigate the matter and if satisfied with the conditions will sign the contract. Green will be employed by about a dozen other cities and will pay all necessary expenses including the hiring of engineering experts, etc. Other cities will pay a like amount.

Land For Library

The Library Board having reported that it believes the lot in Fourth street adjoining the library and desired to place an addition to the library to be worth not more than $800 the council decided to pay that sum for the land and if that offer is refused to condemn the property in question.

Partial Assessment

A partial assessment for the Canal Sub-division street work was ordered. Councilman Gerlach stated that he is opposed to the plan of partial assessments and claimed that the work plan were very poor. Councilman Long spoke in similar vein.

REVIEW OF CAUSES AND EFFECT

The editor of the Christian Science Monitor, a great daily published at Boston and of international circulation and importance, is one of the best editorial writers in the country. We like to read his views, for while we do not agree with them many times, they furnish profound food for thought. We should all read both sides of any controversy or subject, in order to get at the facts, and that is something most people do not do.

The News holds that labor is right in its demands at this time for an increase in wage, and that the government should take hold and force the great corporations who are cleaning up hundreds of millions to do what is right by those whose labor furnishes the things out of which the fortunes are being made, but even then there is good argument in the following view of the situation by the Monitor:

"In spite of the story of Belgium, and the story of Serbia, and in spite of the story of the submarine at sea, there are to be found today pacifists in Paris and London who are childish enough to think, like the Bolsheviks or Italian peasants, that they can make terms with an autocracy founded on bayonets which would be concessions of having snatched victory out of defeat. But the struggle has stretched round the world. It has left Europe by the Straits of Dover to cross the American continent, and re-enter Europe through the back door at Valdivostok, in other words, Brazil, Canada, and the United States have been drawn into the conflict. And here, to the superficial thinker, is a curious thing, that the very poison of disintegration which is endeavoring to break up the allies in Europe is striving, in exactly the same way, to endeavor to destroy the unity of the peoples of the United States, by making numbers of them wish for the victory of the enemies of the States, and the remainder quarrel among themselves over capital and labor.

Every day the war goes on means loss of life for the countries engaged in it, and therefore delay which can be brought about in an American factory or an American arsenal means loss of life, not only in the whole body of the allied forces, but in the ranks of the American troops. It is precisely to bring about this end that the enemy is striving to produce strikes and to produce delay. Already the virus has sufficiently impregnated the United States to have made it impossible for the Government to make good its shipbuilding pledge to the allies. Now it is spreading hither and thither, causing strikes here and strikes there. It is not necessary for the present purpose to go into the merits of those strikes. Who is right or who is wrong is, for the moment, immaterial. What is material is that they are taking place, because the self-interest of individuals are being placed before the interests of the country, and because those who are enjoying safety and the comfort of their homes, in the rear, are apparently entirely indifferent to the danger or suffering of the army at the front, provided only they can wring the last farthing for themselves out of the struggle.

In these circumstances, the people of the allied countries had better realize that every hour wasted in international dissension is an hour added to the duration of the war, to their own troubles, and to the difficulties of their countries. The efforts of the pacifist, no matter how well meant have done nothing but delay the coming of peace, because, while weakening the unity of their respective countries, they have added to the false expectations of the enemies' countries. In just the same way, the struggles of capital and labor have served merely to decrease the output of munitions and material, and so seriously to jeopardize the lives of the men at the front. It does not matter, for the purposes of the war, whether capital is reaping undue profits, or labor making undue claims. Nobody, during the period of war, is finding things going exactly as he would have them go, and so capital and labor, during the time the war lasts, should show true patriotism in agreeing to the requirements of the Government and the terms arranged by the Government, if it were only for insuring the rapid conclusion of the war. There is a responsibility no person can escape who does anything to lengthen the period of war, and that is the responsibility of bloodguiltiness. The men of the allied countries have gone unquestioningly to the firing line. Their relations wait at home for their return. When, therefore, it is found that those who have not got to go to the front spend their time in fighting over profits and over wages, not only the men at the front but their relations have a right to demand that this shall come to an end, and that the Government shall insist on an arrangement of these disputes which shall be loyally accepted by all until the questions can be fought out without danger to the lives of those who ought to receive the first consideration. To this extent, at any rate, every man is his brother's keeper.

My boss out on the 2x4 ranch says she never knew it to fail that if dinner is a trifle late I am strictly on time.

Very few publications devoted to any particular cause contain anything interesting.

The theory that a boil is worth five dollars didn't originate with a man who is entertaining one.

THE SALE OF FISH

IN OUR MARKETS

As more than tripled since the Government has requested the people to eat more fish and it seems as though every day is fish day not alone Friday. There is one fault with the public and that is they insist upon eating the scarcest fish, such as salmon and halibut which are the highest priced.

We have plenty of cheaper fish just as wholesome and tasty and they are the freshest, because we receive shipments daily. To serve the public properly and encourage the use of fish, nothing but the freshest fish, should be sold, and cleanliness about the stand enforced.

Y. M. C. A. Drive Winds Up Tonight

The big Y. M. C. A. drive that has been on for about ten days is to come to a windup tonight with a supper at the Richmond Club, at which time the full general result will be made known.

The workers started out to raise $5,000 for this great war work, out of the $35,000,000 being undertaken in the Nation, but when the Standard Oil company came to the front so magnanimously with $2,000 they immediately raised the ante, and the News prophesied at once that the $5,000 would grow to at least $7,500. Now it seems that even this paper was conservative, for Secretary Maas of the Chamber of Commerce said last night that he fully expected the showdown tonight would reveal not less than $8,000. Well, if it does, that will be going some for Richmond, and our city will be covered all over with glory.

Sunday all the ministers gave the good work a boost in their sermons, and this doubtless helped out in the contributions made yesterday and to be made today.

At noon yesterday the committee of workers visited the Santa Fe shops and talked to about 3-9 men, with good results. Today at 12-10 Chas. J. Cray. George Crow and E. A. Maas will speak to the men at the Pullman shops.

Tonight at the final meeting this paper will get all the results and announce it next morning.

and is not the same town it was even two years ago. And it is going to grow and improve still more, now that the improvement of its waterfront has been arranged for.

And all up and down the waterfront between Richmond and Martinez great improvement is noticeable. The Selby lead works has more than doubled in size. So has the Crockett sugar factory, and a dozen other manufacturing enterprises. The Vallejo and Benicia ferries are running strong with traffic all the time, the latter carrying nearly 800 passengers in autos in a single day recently.

It is good country and a grand county, with a future ahead of it a thousand times greater than anything accomplished yet.

SUMMONS

In the Superior Court of the County of Contra Costa, State of California.

Charissa E. Peake, plaintiff, vs. Charles G. Peake, defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, and the complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County of Contra Costa.

The people of the State of California send greeting to Charles G. Peake, defendant.

You are hereby directed to appear, and answer the Complaint in an action entitled as above brought against you in the Superior Court of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, within ten days after the service on you of this Summons; or within thirty days if served elsewhere.

And you are hereby notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for any money or damages demanded in the Complaint, as arising upon contract or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the Complaint.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, this 19th day of January, A. D. 1917.

LET MAYERS DO IT

Mayers' American Cleaning and Dyeing Establishment at 1116 Macdonald avenue, is so well known in Richmond for many years past that it is probably needless to say that it is the leader in this line of business in this city. If you want your old suit made to look like new let Mayers do it. That's his business and he knows how. Incidentally, he doesn't charge but very little. For further information telephone Richmond 452.

Thanksgiving

This great national holiday is drawing nigh, when we will all celebrate the home-loving ties with the usual and appropriate feast.

We are making a specialty this year of everything in our line which goes to make up the Thanksgiving dinner and we will have something to offer this season never before seen in Richmond. See our window displays in a few days from now, and especially inquire into the fancy Thanksgiving Packages which are to be offered.

In the meantime, better be laying in the supply of fancy apples, raisins, pumpkins, celery, cranberries and all the other usual goodies.

John O. Peard Is Called Beyond

It is with deep regret that this paper announces the death of John O. Peard, well known and much beloved young man of Richmond, son of Mrs. Sophia Peard, who passed away at the home of his mother at 150 Washington avenue Sunday evening, at the age of 33 years. He leaves a wife, mother, son and two sisters, Mrs. James F. Robertson of San Francisco and Mrs. Anna B.
Bowen, of this city to mourn his loss.
Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the mortuary chapel of Bert Curry in this city and will be under the auspices of the Moose lodge, of which deceased was a member. Interment will be in the family vault in Green Lawn cemetery, San Mateo county.
John Peard had many friends in Richmond, who will mourn his loss.

Lillian Walker, the darling of the screen, who has created an enviable reputation in the photoplay field, is at the Richmond Theatre today, in the extraordinary dramatic production, "The Lust of the Ages," a soul-grinding story of the wreck and havoc wrought by the desire on the part of man to accumulate excessive wealth.

"The Lust of the Ages" was written by the popular playwright, Aaron Hoffman, and the gradual unfoldment of his story has been visualized with effects and stage settings never before attempted in motion pictures.
The Oden Pictures Corporation, producers of "The Lust of the Ages," have set a new high water mark in photoplay achievement.

Miss Walker is credited in this production with having excelled herself and gives a delineation of three separate characters in the story.

Phonograph Co. Is Spreading Out

Appreciating the business opportunities that are offered by the tremendous trans-bay population, the Stern Talking Machine Co. of San Francisco will open, about December 1st, a large branch store in Oakland. Handsome and commodious quarters have already been secured at 1432 San Pablo Avenue, and a large stock of phonographs and records are being moved in to be ready for the big opening day.

The Stern Company has been operating in San Francisco about one and a half years, and their success has been quite phenomenal, as during so short a space of time, they built up what they claim to be the largest exclusive phonograph business in the entire west, certainly a very remarkable achievement. Some time ago, a branch store was opened in this city with a success even greater in proportion than was made by the parent organization. Plans are being made, also, for operating stores in other California cities, as soon as arrangements can be made for the handling of the business.

The O. R. E. need their regular meeting last night.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will hold a food sale at Schrader's, 7th and Macdonald, Wednesday, Nov. 28.
Home-made pies a specialty.
